

CISD Core Beliefs
2010-2011

We Believe...

...ALL students can learn.

...Adults should continue learning and lead by example.

...Leadership is the responsibility of ALL stakeholders.

...Change must begin in US.

...By having open communication and respect for all individuals, we will encourage the diversity of our community.

...Everyone working together will achieve our common goals through respect, trust and encouragement.

...EVERY individual is accountable and responsible for students to become productive citizens.

...The community is a part of the learning process, which strives to meet each child's ability to achieve their goal of educational excellence.
